Sunday - 2. April - 50

Dear Honey:

I hated to call you again so soon - more money - but under the circumstances I didn't want to wait for fear something might have happened before a letter could have reached you.

It is hard for me to believe that his condition is as bad as everyone has told me but no doubt it is true. Dottie stays in the solarium most of the time since they only allow her to visit him at certain times. She is so brave and well poised it makes me feel ashamed I ever acted so silly over ^(at times) you.

However I'm learning!

Today's report on John's slight improvement (or rather Sat nites)

The drugs are probably beginning to take effect - Let us hope.

Still no letter from my Sandy ---. It's no use for me to pretend I don't miss them because I do - terribly.
Even a "quickie note" would suffice. We have nothing to share if you don't write Until then ---

All my love,
Dorinda

Later Sunday: The latest report on John - more comfortable -

Be happy sweetie
