Honey M-Love -

I have long owed thee a letter - two long!

How are you doing as you get back to work - how do you feel & how is the work going? I do hope you're coming along nicely.

All's well here - I guess.

We went down to NYC a week ago today & stayed at Kings Crown Hotel overnight &
B. had the X-ray Times.

A.M. Dorenda had written &

Said he sure <sup>②</sup> + stay there, which was precious of her + if it had been just me, I should have had 2 of us would have meant kicking her out entirely so we thought this was better.

Bud wrote B. all the things to do - castor oil - enemas etc + we took em + then the head X-ray guy took the X-ray Tues. A.M.
When he was there Bud said we might as well c'mon home + they'd let us know their decision. So we went over + worked Dominda up + had a nice visit with her, then she + we tried to track down your records again, with no success. They were practically demolishing the floor where Tom R. had been living + the person who knew where he + the records were seemed out to lunch - so we'll try again - + again.

Would love to be meeting them here, actually.

We drove on home <sup>(4)</sup> Tues. P.M.
→ Sonta sat on the anxious seat all week but heard nothing till today. Bud says the X-ray man has seen a suspicious area in these X-rays that's different from the suspicious area in the others, so he wants to study all the X-rays very carefully + talk it all over w/ Larry + Bud ere he says cut or don't cut Cutter.
So they'll let us know the result of that study + conference.
Meanwhile, he says Larry would like to do another proctoscopic exam while there's a show of blood. & the <sup>(5)</sup> next time it appears - we've to call Lavy & men right down. Cutters fast drinking will come in handy - whoosh - but we are!

Did you apply for your Veterans Bonus in N.Y. state?
Not the dividend on VA Insurance but the Veterans Bonus - as long as they're handing it out, love - you might as well get it - don't miss nothing!

Now about this gal business - our new sister - in-law if, as, + when - for goodness sake, honey -

⑥ the idea of us being disgusted w/ you is ridiculous! In fact, I think I can really understand how you feel, cause I seem to be about in the same spot re adoption of a child. There are times when I feel I must & just yearn to do so & then sometimes I get scared to death at the very thought of it.

Sometimes I think B. & I need a child & sometimes I think it might spoil what we have together. And always I hear at times wishing by & see meself getting old + gray - aren't we something!

So, far from being impatient or disgusted w you, my honey child - I know just what you mean - so please relax + have fun + the one thing I do believe about both of us is that the good Lord will look out for us + somehow show us what to do. I did write to The Cradle, by the way, + they wrote back that they had so many people applying for children that they couldn't take any more. so that!

Thanks for the <sup>(8)</sup> tooth care thing - what is the name of the mouth wash? I'll get some dentolape - I've been using that same brushing technique ever since my dentist found some slight evidence of pyorhea <sup>(9)</sup> about a year ago. In fact he told me to brush in that manner for 10 minutes twice a day! Somehow I never got that much done but have cleared up the pyorhea thing & do love the feel of it.
too. Seems a matter of getting the old blood to circulating

You'll never know the pleasure the Toward is to us - Cutten even made a plywood base for it the other night.

We have the blueprints for our house - + the one didn't plan it for a baby, we think it would work fine for one.

I spend a lot of time on League of Women Voters work, it seems, these days. Kinda fun.

I still hope we can all get together in Bham

⑩ Sometime this spring - it would be wonderful.

Now rest assured, love, that whenever you get us for a sister-in-law, we shall dearly love, cause you picked her.

Do take care + goodness Sabe have some fun - you've earned some! We love you a ting heap!
B + G.
