Love y my life!

At last I am getting down to writing the letter I promised you yesterday. My cold continues to improve - thank goodness. Tonite was the night for my Spanish lesson and I have just returned - so before another thing happens here goes -

I hope you didn't mind me calling you again so soon but I wanted to know about my precious Sandy. It had been many days - weeks it seemed since your last letter and I just couldn't wait any longer. I'm glad I called though - you sounded as if you miss me more & more all the time. Oh & I love the way you still cling to a bit of verbal restraint. However I can't blame you too much when I insist on pressuring you so often. There was a time when I thought we would start drifting apart after being separated for such a long time but strangely enough I still have all my old feelings, only moreso!

Getting back to vacations - sweetie pie - As I said before, I plan to take the month of June and I secretly plan to spend part of it with you - ahem - Wouldn't it be fun if we could persuade your Mom & Pop to take a vacation too - and all four of us go some place together???? June being early in the summer it would be pleasant anywhere (except Houston) If you come to N.Y. would that time count as vacation? How long would you want to stay? If I am to have the time off I want I must put my bid in now - - - - so let's start making plans Loney-bunchie - - - - -

Had a wonderful time at the party the other nite, in spite of my cold - He played games and talked.
The fellows talked a lot about Jann L.
leaving. They were all of the opinion the Surgical Dept. had lost its No. 1 man. Personally I think there is more to the matter than meets the eye - and it is not his health.
You know he will work as hard, ^{as he can} at any job he undertakes. I wonder who will take his place. Tom Randall?
No Too near present house staff -
An outsider probably!

Had dinner in P.H. dining room with J.B. Sutherland last nite.
He told me his mother died about ten days ago. ~~He~~ Apparently it was a blessing she has been sick for a long long time

I gave him your address so you will probably be hearing from him soon. He asked me when I was getting married and I told him tomorrow if I get the chance. ha! J.B. made me promise I wouldn't date any of the Sloane House Staff. He probably has good reasons — a word to the wise should be sufficient. Count is taking me to a concert next Tuesday - O.K.?

I could go on writing to you lover but I must go to bed early so I can cure ^{my} present ailment. You know how I long to see you again. Sometimes I feel as if I can't wait another day. Oh sweetheart come as soon as you can I need you so much. I love you I love you — and I'll never stop no matter what happens.

Your
Linda
