Catten Corners - Sunday

Honey - Another lovely day + we're on the hilltop + I wish you could see our house now! We had a full week of good weather so they worked every single day + made tremendous progress - all stone work is done except the chimney - sub-floor are down + all studs are up - it really begins to look like a house!

We want to wish you Godspeed + good luck on the exams, honey child - we know you'll lead all the rest - won't it be wonderful to have one more bundle<sup>2</sup> behind you?

It was so good to see you & Doro + your stop in NY was certainly fruitful - imagine having so many wonderful choices! The Cleveland deal sounds like a better bet financially, doesn't it?
I think part of it is where you want to live.
Should the possibility of the Army grabbing you enter in? If so - you could salt away a nest egg for afterwards from the Cleveland deal, I guess - if they just had an ocean there!

How is the <sup>(3)</sup> climate + atmosphere, both as to persons + elements, in Houston these days? Probably Jack missed you so much he fell on your neck with joy !!! And I'll bet those hot spells are when Mike is away - methinks his very presence could lower the temperature a good deal.

Well, me child - just pay em no mind. You've on your way to bigger & better things + someday they'll only be a footnote in your autobiography - a footnote nobody

bothers with <sup>(4)</sup>

Hope you're feeling
okay & getting enough rest. How're Charlie &
the goddess & the other gals?

Have fun & we'll be thinking of you on the 25th & wishing we were there to at least keep your pencils
sharpened for you.

Best of luck &
all our love -

B & G
