

DORINDA DAVIS
165 Fort Washington Avenue
N.Y.C. (32) N.Y. Apt. 4F

VIA AIR MAIL
Special Delivery

Dr. E. K. Sanders
V. A. Hospital

2002 Holcombe Drive
B.C. Houston
TEXAS

Thursday eve -
August 31, 1950

Dear sweetie:

Another letter from you today and I am so happy you were pleased with the knife. And I also got quite a "charge" out of you buying it! Superstitious eh? As a matter of fact I wrote you a letter last nite but failed to mail it in my rush to get on duty. Was so afraid you had not received the gift at all - - Yes, I disposed of yesterday's letter so will try again before anything else happens.

Have been gadding about like a dunnno what - more fun though - Last Sunday

I spent the day with Hugh + Laurie + and my date - He went to the Davis Cup tennis matches and then to dinner at the Riverside Yacht Club. It was Hugh's treat all the way around.

Laurie looks well - perhaps a little thinner and I think she will be greatly relieved when Hughie finishes his residency December 31st.

Tomorrow I begin permanent duty in the labor room - I hope it proves to be a step in the right direction and not just an escape. At least it will be a change.

It is hard for me to believe you are really coming to N.Y. in September - but now it must be true - - - you have mentioned it more than once.

3/

Honey, you really need a vacation so don't let anything happen to your plans. I had so many things on my mind I wanted to write you about but just thinking about your visit excites me so much I can't think of anything else.

Do you have any idea when you will come?

Lately I've seen Dr Sloan, Haagensen, & Stinchfield -

Oh, by the way Dr Haagensen will be away until September 15.

Tell honey, - Even though N.Y.C. is hot & sticky next month there is one thing I can assure you of - you

4

will not be bored.

Must get to bed early
tonite - more later

Love,

Donna

Later - Sept. 1st

Good morning honey, I am a sweet girl - see ya!
you're sweet too! D.D.