Wednesday nite - 8 - March - 50

Dear Honey:

Your bunch of honey came this P.M. It's so good to hear from you sweetie - keep it up.

You're right about Monday nite being a good radio nite & I think that was one of the reasons I asked to have my Spanish lessons changed to Wednesday nites. Yes I listen to Carnegie Hall at 8 P.M. on Tuesdays when I'm home. By the way I thought I told you I work day only now. I miss the differential in pay ($5.00) but I feel my freedom evenings is worth something to me at this time.

I hesitate to mention it again but I think it will be ⁱⁿ better taste if I don't write the Heaney's. If ^{they} mention me at all I shall rely on your judgement as to what to say. I would love to see them but I will understand if they have other plans.

Enjoyed hearing about your new experience - Ballet - I can't imagine how lovely it was - and two notes of it gave a more varied understanding of the art. I would like to see more of such things while I am still in N.Y. but it cost so much to live, I simply can not afford it. However I do the best I can - I create instead.

You haven't said anymore about your vacation - Will the V.C. give you one this year? - If all goes well I plan to take the month of June.

Must go to tea honey - Write me all the news with you.

I miss you lots.

Love, Dorinda

Dear Sandy:

There's no use denying that I've been stood up before but never to a bald headed male colleague.
However, in all fairness I must add that I was never also bunched - and with an orchid! You never did have much sense, and this

Proves it, but Thanks To you
I looked as well as a lady pathologist with bifocals can (To say nothing of a grandmother) and was much envied at the dinner.

Thank you and remember my address when you come To New York - soon - as you should.
As ever, Y.K.F.
