Haven't stopped since Saturday night and if I had Billy with me, that plane would have to back up to the door to get me home Friday night! However, I'll be back on Eastern @ 10:45 Friday night on, I believe Flight 505 out of New Orleans. If you can't make it, I'll hop a lousimike in. Hope you'll be able to make it Saturday.

Saw Annie Got Your Gun in outdoor theatre last night - very good. It's been cold - 52° here - blankets & quilts yet! Really having a marvelous time - never been on the go so much and of course thriving on it!

*P.S. EVEN this whirl would be more fun with you - but don't let on I told you!
