Dearest Sandy:

My sweetest of all the boys I know, how are you today? I'm fine but I miss lovin' my sweetheart. Enjoyed your last two letters - one yesterday and one today. Your tennis game sounds good. In fact I like to hear all about your playtime as well as your worktime - ha! Do the girls you date help you much with your apartment? decorating etc? I think you are too clever for words to think up the "blind" idea for the screen between the kitchenette + living room. After you get the paint cleaned of

and if the wood is pretty why don't you just polish it with sandpaper and linseed oil.

That's just an idea! Darn it, I wish I could see your apartment but I'm only wishin' - believe me.

I went shopping today and bought some beautiful hand painted dessert dishes which were made in Germany. Each plate has a different ^{fruit} design; - grapes, strawberries, plumes, cherries, pears, apples. Each plate cost $2.50 but they look worth the money all right. I don't think I could get anything nice for much less - do you?
I like them so that's all that really matters, isn't it sweetheart?
I also bought a nice piece of luggage. A hat box - very light - and it is just the thing for weekend trips. I have been invited to East Hampton, L.I. weekend after next - that is if I can get the time off.

I almost bought your birthday present but I thought it was a little early to have it sent. So honey, you still have time to put in a hint for something you really want.

I'm happy you're proud about my promotion. Thank you for your congratulations.

My darling, I love to read about your thoughts of me because everything between us both is good and beautiful.
 As a poet once wrote -

"Love is good" and I love

you so very, very much.
Wouldn't it be wonderful if I could kiss you fifty times every day - ?

Gee it's quite late, in fact it is already tomorrow, tee hee!
I don't feel at all sleepy but I guess I had better go to bed.

Write me soon, my sweet.

Love,
Linda

P.S. I begin my new job Friday August 10th

R.P.S. I LOVE YOU, SANDY
