

4F.
165 Ft. Washington Ave.
N.Y.C. (32) N.Y.

Via Air Mail

DR. E. K. SANDERS
V. A. HOSPITAL
2002 HOLCOMBE DRIVE
HOUSTON, 4
TEXAS

No. 2

Sunday mite

18 February '57

Honeybunchie:

I forgot to mention my reaction to your refusal of the Russellot job. I'm so glad you decide not to take the job and I'm sure you did the right thing - but now I know you won't be in N.Y. job hunting anymore - you won't be working here either - Oh dear! But as we both agreed it would be silly to let personal feelings enter into a decision so important. The fact that you still need my love is all that really matters. Darling, I hope you will always need my kind of love - you are so dear to me.

Write me about anything you're doing and don't apologize about your problems. I like to hear about anything that concerns you.

Think, I'll take myself to the movies tonite in maybe I won't miss you so much.

My darling Sandy

I love you,

Arin day