My darling -

Your last letter has me beside myself with excitement. I really don't know whether I'll be able to write or not but I am sure you will hear with me.

Honey, if you are sure you want me to meet you in Los Angeles I would love to make the trip - and I know the little Ford won't let me down. If I fly air coach to Houston leaving N.Y. midnite Thursday May 24 - Arriving in Houston around 8 AM - Friday May 25 - That's about the earliest I can arrange my time off. Then if you have the car waiting for me at the airport I can start from there and no time wasted - El Paso - Phoenix - and Los Angeles by

Sunday. Without a doubt I think we owe it to ourselves to have a good vacation together - and just think the thrill we'll have seeing the West together. Cousin Ernest was just saying to me the other day that I should be traveling while I'm young! You too!
He is a bit provoked at me for spending all my vacations at home.

Sometime ago I promised my mother I would drive her to Mexico for Jeb's graduation; but I can not let a graduation stand in the way of our visit together. It may be our last chance for a real vacation - especially if you go into private practice.
For the most part I don't think anyone can say I neglect my family - but that is beside the point.
Yep! I'm going to see my honey in California - I want him to be sure to pass Part II <sup>(3)</sup> of his Surgical Boards.

I almost called you long distance tonite but I decided it was better to save our money. You can write me all the details about where you will be staying in L.A. etc.

Oh Sandy I can hardly believe we will be together exactly two weeks from today.

More later -

Love,

Sandy
