

DORINDA DAVIS
165. FORT WASHINGTON AVENUE
N.Y.C. 132 N.Y. Apt. 41

Special Delivery

2 32

Dr. E. K. SANDERS
V.A. HOSPITAL
2002 HOLCOMBE DRIVE
HOUSTON
TEXAS

Saturday - 6 P.M.
May 19, 1951

My dearest little Sandy:

Thank you for the telegram but I can not come. You were sweet and unselfish to invite me in the first place but I'm afraid I was a bit hasty in accepting. When I received your letter, all I thought was, there was not much time and you wanted me to come. I quickly change my vacation and made application for a N.Y. drivers license. If I still felt in my heart it was right to make the trip I would come --- but I know it isn't - You know it too!! I know I shall see California someday but I do not think we shall ever have another vacation together. Perhaps that was the big reason for my quick decision. I just wanted to be with you once by myself.

I mailed you a letter this morning so you'll probably get two at once. Just want you to know I'm not unhappy or sad about anything that has happened and I hope you feel the same way.

Keep studying hard for the exams - I want you pass more than anything in the whole world.

I'm not gonna change my vacation again - - - It really doesn't matter anyway. I'll be home next <sup>(May 24th)</sup> Friday AM so write me there. (p EXAMS)

Love, Dorenda
P.S. Don't phone or send ANYMORE telegrams
I'd much rather have a letter - - -
IN it's cheaper. Be Sweet, Sweetie x x x x x.