Dear Edmet,

It's been ages since your letter and I have been a poor correspondent.
Mother and I had an exciting trip to Washington for the D.A.R. Conference, which even included a brief talk by McArthur.
Definitely, the highlight!
We stopped by Touchet night. Miss Ratliff Jones was another bridesmaid.

She is having a baby and she looked very well. I introduced the bride and groom some four years ago.

How is "Caroline" and your work coming along? Aunt Mary Clark saw your mother and father downtown. They were buying an umbrella or she was - but I can't remember which. She said she understood that you weren't planning to go to New York after all.

This being an only child and rattling around in this house is a unique experience. The Bishop is still keeping me busy and I am thoroughly enjoying my work with him. I doubt if I'll find time to go tripping again for a while - just down to Pensacola week-ends.

P.S.

Always,

Did I tell you one of my slides won a Bromberg's enlargement? How are the movies?

for a brief visit with Louis and had a lovely two days in Charlottesville. We drove up and left the car with Rosalie, who is spending the spring in Virginia, and flew home, Mother's first flight. She was thrilled!

Dad is just back from Lexington where he was at V.M.I. for Marshall day. Baruch introduced the General and Dad wouldn't have missed it for anything.

I was in a wedding last Saturday
